

This doctor-patient appointment booking application is build by Krishanu adak who is from mecheda, did his grauduation from Netaji Subhash engineering college and owner of this application.this application is built to solve long waiting queue appointments in physical mode.this application is basically built for quick appointment based on any city in west bengal. Any user can filter by locations for doctors and can checks their scheules for the week,can book appointments by checking their schedules first doctor's can check the booked appointments by patients and they can approve or reject if approved then only payment link will be created then user can make payment . Then appointment link will be created.